Title VII (Impact Aid)
Indian Policies and Procedures
Anadarko Public Schools, I020
2017-2018

It is the intent of the Anadarko School District that all Indian children of school age have equal access to all programs, services and activities offered within the school district. To this end, the Anadarko School District will consult with local tribal officials and parents of Indian children in the planning and development of Indian Policies and Procedures (IPP's), general education programs, and activities. These policies and procedures will be reviewed at least annually and revisions will be made within 90 days of the determination that requirements are not being adequately met.

Children living on Indian land participate in school programs on an equal basis with all other children in the Anadarko School District. No teacher or program director is to exclude or limit participation in any district activity on the basis of race. It should be noted that the funds derived from Title VII, other than special education portion thereof, are used the same way as funds derived from other non-earmarked sources in the district. Special education funds generated in Title VII are used to assist in the continued effort to provide and equal educational opportunity for those Indian students with special education needs.

ATTESTATIONS

The Anadarko School District attests that it has established American Indian Policies and Procedures (IPPs) as required in section 7004 of the Impact Aid law for any children claimed who reside on eligible Indian lands. The IPP has been adequately disseminated to the tribes and parents of children residing on eligible Indian lands. A copy of the current policies and procedures is attached to the FY 2018 Impact Aid application.

The Anadarko School District attests that it has provided a copy of written responses to comments, concerns, and recommendations received from tribal leaders and parents of Indian children through the Indian Policies and Procedures consultation process and disseminated these responses to tribal leaders and parents of Indian children prior to the submission of the Impact Aid application.

Minutes from the Indian Education meetings will be posted on the District's website for all patrons and tribal officials to review. This will allow for ongoing dissemination of information.

- Impact Aid FY 2018 application;
- Evaluation of all educational programs assisted with Impact Aid funds; and
- Plans for education programs the District intends to initiate or eliminate

In addition, information regarding these materials may be included in the Indian Education Department's newsletter, which is made available by sending home with students to all parents of Indian students and emailing to tribal officials, if appropriate.

The Indian Education Committee (Parent Advisory Committee) of the Anadarko School District will meet monthly for the purpose of addressing comments and concerns of parents of Indian children regarding the district's educational programs and activities. The meeting agendas are posted on the district website at www.apswarriors.com and all meetings are open to the public allowing for tribal officials as well as parents of Indian children the opportunity to submit comments and recommendations for consideration.

At each of the monthly school board meeting, a section of time is set aside on the agenda for communication from the public. This is a time to offer comments and suggestions regarding programming for Indian students. In addition, two public hearings are scheduled in June and

November which are specifically devoted to addressing questions regarding federal programs, including Impact Aid. Based upon suggestions, preferred methods of communication, as well as ways to maximize participation from tribal officials and parents of Indian children will be seriously considered. Man found not guilty of child sexual abuse

Victor R. Florence, 36, of Carnegie who had been charged in Caddo County District Court with nine counts of child sexual abuse, was found not guilty Dec. 7 of one count of child sexual abuse. Costs of $1,090 were also dismissed.

Florence had been charged with the crime on May 7, 2015, and arrested by Caddo County Sheriff's Deputy Tracy Green after the sheriff's office was told by a 12-year-old girl and her mother that Florence would have her come into his bedroom and showed her pornography on his cell phone while inappropriately touching himself. The girl told authorities the incidents occurred almost daily since Christmas 2014.

The court allowed prior false allegations of sexual offense to be entered into the record by Florence's attorney, Bret Burns of Anadarko. Florence had been out on a $20,000 bond since Sept. 7, 2016.

Man gets 10 years for child sexual abuse

Justin D. Ogletree, 29, of Hydro was found guilty Nov. 21 in Caddo County District Court to a charge of child sexual abuse, and was sentenced to serve 10 years in the Oklahoma Department of Corrections. Ogletree had been charged Dec. 2016 after an arrest by Hydro Police Officer Dustin Carney. He currently owes $3,110.25 in court costs and fees. Details of the abuse are not available.

The APWA will discuss and vote on an agreement between the Oklahoma Department of Human Services' Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) and the APWA.

Pittman was accused of sexually abusing his 12-year-old stepdaughter in September 2015 at his residence in Bridgeport.

The daughter said her mother left the house and Pittman told her younger brothers to go into the living room, then took her in the master bathroom of the house. She said Pittman told her to remove all her clothing and lie in the floor with a towel over her head. She said he then attempted penetration. The girl said this was not the first time an incident like that had happened.

Deputy Chris Leal spoke with Pittman about the allegations. The deputy noted Pittman began crying and shaking, then stated, "Man, that's my daughter. Why would she say this?" He said the only time he and his daughter were alone was when his wife went to Hinton to get WIC benefits around 4 p.m. Sept. 21, 2015. Pittman's wife wrote a statement for deputies which stated the same facts as her daughter. She added that day was the first time the girl had been left alone with Pittman "in a while." She added that her daughter told her Pittman said she was not to tell her mother or he would hurt her mother.

The stepdaughter told authorities previous incidents occurred when she was 11 years old and would go with her stepfather to get food at a restaurant in Hinton. She said they would drive behind a shed at the Bridgeport Cemetery and Pittman would perform similar sexual acts on his stepdaughter while she was in the back seat of their vehicle.

The girl also told about another incident which occurred on a "rig site" which had to have a passcode to enter. She also told the authorities about an incident which happened when she was 5 or 6 years old. Sentencing for Pittman will be held at 1 p.m. Feb. 12. He currently owes $3,356 in court fines and fees.
